Observations

WO 176, April 1, 1974 issue, predicted the defeat of Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark). Fulbright's fate was sealed when he made the mistake of publicly stating the truth that Israel controls Congress. Wealthy Jews pumped money into the Arkansas primary to defeat Fulbright. . . . Saudi Arabian military and police personnel enjoy the heaviest CIA "consultantship": not only officers, but even sergeants are on the secret payroll list. WO's message to King Faisal: Be careful! . . . The U.S. is building a $100 million satellite system for the Shah of Iran, which will be launched from Cape Canaveral soon. It will be hooked into Iran's military communications net.

Red Chinese war supplies are reaching the Kurdish forces in Iraq now engaged in a no-quarter war with the Arab regime. The Soviets are arming and supplying the Arabs of Iraq. . . . The Kissinger-directed reorganization of the CIA is alienating para-military men, who are being eliminated en masse; CIA is now recruiting campus liberals, preferably with doctoral degrees. . . . Insiders say that there is open hostility between the White House staff and Vice President Gerald Ford's staff. . . . Nixon recently confided that he is now disenchanted with Ford.
